And speaking of birthdays...

Last month John and Linda welcomed their baby boy Clyde Arthur Robert into the world. They would like to say thank you to their friends and the community for their kind wishes and thoughtful gifts. The sweet treats especially were appreciated by Mum!

Due to our continuing difficulties with accessing affordable and reliable Internet, it has been suggested that we all ring this number to let them know of our situation here in Greenethorpe: ie, we receive an inferior internet service (and pay through the nose for it) and our area will miss out on cabled / ADSL / wireless broadband NBN, as our area is listed for future satellite service only on the proposed roll out plan/ map, whilst villages like Koorawatha and Murringo are able to receive NBN.

We are also considering a form letter to our local member, which all would be welcome to sign and send in!

Many thanks to Sam Allen for organizing an evening at the Shamrock for us as a Farewell for our years as the local School Bus drivers.

Such a lovely surprise to have so many turn out on a wet night. We really enjoyed catching up with everyone and sharing tidbits about the children over the past sixteen years. From Kindy to year twelve and beyond made us think it was time to retire, before we began to drive the next generation.

We sincerely hope Greenethorpe school keeps going for many years to come. Small schools have so much to offer with more individual attention to students.

We thank also the parents and grandparents for their support over the years due to incidents such as the floods, and occasional breakdowns; Steve and Colin for always being available to fix something on one bus or the other so as to get the children to school (the children thought the Fire Truck ride to school was great when Ralph got bogged).

Some of you could not make it to share the evening, but thanks for thinking of us. Hope to catch up again at the Tour de Greenethorpe.

AT the Cowra Show R. Hamilton, of Greenethorpe, got first for White Wyandotte hen and second for pullet, also first for White Wyandotte cock and second for cockerel. A. J. Traves' Captain Aynsley secured the ribbon for Clydesdale stallion.

The Arts and Crafts group meets on Saturdays at the Uniting Church Hall. All are welcome to come, to teach or learn a new skill.

As Le Tour de Greenethorpe approaches, we are again looking for any local cooks who are willing and able to cook up some treats for the Patisserie stall, held at Le Tour on Sept 20th. The funds raised from the stall go to the SM Hall.

So far we have donations of eclairs, friands, cup cakes and tarts coming and if you would like to cook any edible treats to contribute you are most welcome. Please let Danielle know what you plan to make by emailing her on danielle@greenethorpe.nsw.au and just bringing it on the morning of the 20th to the stall.

Merci!

THEFTS FROM RAILWAY.

Eric Furness (21), was charged with at Greenethorpe, stealing one pair of trousers, valued at 10/ the property of the Chief Commissioner for Railways. He pleaded guilty.

Constable Mackenzie, stationed at Harden, stated that on 29th January, he arrested accused who was a porter at Harden railway station. Accused had been relieving at Greenethorpe and whilst there sold a pair of blue serge thousers valued at 10/ to Porter Watson, for 3/6.

Sanson Bembrick, a tailor residing at Grenfell said that he had a serge pair of trousers sent from Greenethorpe for repairs and consigned when repaired to Greenethorpe about the end of October.

Walter Charles William Watson, railway porter at Greenethorpe, said that in October, defendant was there for about a fortnight. He remembered a small parcel being booked from Grenfell to Greenethorpe to Mr. Finn. It remained at the station for about a month. When application was made for the parcel it could not be found. In conversation with defendant the latter offered him a pair of trousers for 3/6 and he bought them.

Defendant was fined 20/ and £3 8s expenses in default three months hard labor in Young Gaol.

Furness was further charged with having a pair of trousers in his possession reasonably supposed to have been stolen. He pleaded not guilty, and said the trousers were left at Short's Hotel at Young by two travelers, and he understood that anything so left could be held by the servants of the hotel until claimed.

Thomas Short, licensee of the Criterion Hotel, Young, said that some time last year accused was in his employ. Witness said he was responsible for any goods left behind in his hotel, and accused had no authority to take the trousers.

On this charge accused was sent to Young Gaol for 14 days.

Thanks to all those who responded to the call for sponsors, the calendar is full into next year at this stage. Your name will come up over the next few months if you donated!
