ANZAC Day 2018

A crowd of approximately 150 gathered in Greenethorpe to commemorate ANZAC Day 2018. Our solemn service was added to by Ian Griffith's story of his parents Nancy and Greville Griffith and their contribution to the war efforts. This is an integral part of our service and if anyone would like to present a family member next year (or in the following years) please let me know. There are several servicemen who have no family members in the area. If anyone would like to research their story and present it, that would be most welcome as well.

There was some discussion at the service including another verse to the Australian Anthem but research into this has shown that this is not possible. Advance Australia Fair originally had 5 verses but when it was made our anthem it only included 2 verses. Any other feedback on the ANZAC day service is most welcome.

I'd like to thank all who attended, in particular the Griffith family and Ian McColl, who did such a fabulous job as MC (he has that job for as long as he likes). Also, Thomas, Charlie-Rose, Lachie, Tom, Abbey, Mr Heath and Mrs Hodges for the lovely readings (particularly the Partridge children who stepped up on the day). Jill for her fantastic playing, Joe for leading our singing and David for his prayers. Some people went to the Shamrock after for a lovely breakfast cooked by Hugh. Thanks to Hugh, Kylie and Ashley. A generous donation was made to Legacy at the breakfast.

History of Greenethorpe book project

As you may know, Peter Grossman has been working on a book on the history of Greenethorpe from 1900 to 2000, to contain both photos and written articles.

He has found and received some really interesting items but is looking for more. He will be at the Greenethorpe Post Office on Friday 18th of May at 9.30 am and would like to meet there with anybody who is interested in contributing to the book.

GREENETHORPE YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUB.

Gray's dam proved an excellent location for the cray fishing evening held on Tuesday, 1st May.

A large number of club members attended, and under the light of numerous torches and lanterns the fish population of the dam rapidly diminished.

The camp fire and barbecue following was rather an enlightening experience for some, and many varied opinions were heard on the subject of cray fish eating.

The first portion of the next meeting is to be a series of films and the arranging of a following programme has been left to the music committee.

The Greenethorpe Soldier's Memorial Hall is having a general meeting on Thursday 17th of May at 7pm in the supper room. All are welcome.

Following the tidy up after the S.M.H biennial Ball, 4-5 milk crates, filled with recyclable glasses, cans etc, were taken from outside the hall. Could the people or person who took it upon themselves to kindly dispose of these recyclables, please return the crates as they are property of the hall, and as we all know, crates come in very handy. Thank you.

Group visit to Cowra recycling facility and or Cowra wastewater treatment works. If interested email June Iddon iddonjune@gmail.com or leave a note for June Iddon at Greenethorpe Post Office
