World War I

Armistice Day 2018

'100 years since the fighting stopped'

A special service will be held at the GSM Hall on Sunday, 11th November 2018 at 10.30 am.

A full programme will be available shortly via the AAG email and on the Greenethorpe website and village noticeboard. It is hoped the first 'sod' will be turned on our proposed Outdoor War Memorial site. If you know of anyone that would like to attend please let them know.

Jill Allen, secretary GSMH

GPO News

Our post lady, Belinda Mort, will be away from 12th November to early December. Kathy Richards will be working in the PO & Café during this time. Jody will still be working on Fridays. Normal PO hours will apply and Pizza night will continue as usual on Wednesdays.

The Café may not open on Sundays.

Christmas Lights Competition 2018

There will be two categories in this year's competition, both with $50 prize money. The categories are 'decorated gate' and 'general Chrissy lights display'.

The judging will be on Monday 17th December.

To enter contact Jill Allen on 6343 6208 by Sunday 16th December.

Winners will be announced at the Greenethorpe Australia Day celebrations 2019.

The gates are wide open now that Lisa and her family have left the village! For those of you that may not know, Lisa and her father, both formally of Northcote St, put a lot of time and energy into their impressive Christmas lights display. So, let's make an extra effort to make it a bright and colourful Christmas.
