So if you would like to play and are old enough to walk and hold a bat please be at the ground at 8:30 to warm up and put on some sunscreen for a 9am start. We don't discriminate, everyone is welcome male, female, gender neutral. If you have a Silo Buster or Northern No Tiller shirt please bring it along to wear. Following the game there will be a free Australia day BBQ at the hall (thanks Weddin shire) and the usual Greenethorpe Australia day awards including announcement of the Christmas lights competition. See you there.

Please contact Jill Allen Ph. 6342 6208 if you are able to make salads for the day or assist in other ways.

Australia Day Celebrations

Attention all flannelled fools and spectators. It's time to limber up as Australia Day approaches. Don't be disillusioned by the disastrous test series against India. All the action will be at grass roots level on the famous Greenethorpe recreation ground. We will once again be contesting the highly coveted Doug Allen memorial trophy with the cheating Northerners vs the honourable gentlemen and women from south of the railway line cricket match.

Team captains Graham "Mega" Watt and Rod "Chuckles" Kershaw were asked to name a player each from their team to watch on Australia day. This player could hold the key to either team winning on the day.

Mega nominated the turncoat Hugh Will due to his allrounder skills and having his own bat that everyone can share. Chuckles has singled out Lenny Dawe, the fast bowling maestro, just piping Grant Holland, due to his superior fielding skills.

After six years of writing, Peter Gillett (former resident policeman of Greenethorpe) finally has his book about his policing career in print. There are a number of stories that relate to Greenethorpe, Young and Grenfell.

The book is titled, "A Step Too Far" - Life as a Country Cop. It is available from Forty South Publishing in Hobart or from Peter if a signed copy is requested. The cost is $25 plus $5 postage. If anyone would like a copy from Peter the process is to send the money by EFT to BSB 815000 (Police Bank) Account number 82618 in the name of Peter Gillett.

He will then need an email to petergillett@live.com telling him what inscription to write and a postal address.
