"Rock till it Rains" on March 14th is SOLD OUT!
Thank you to everybody who has bought tickets and who is helping out with the preparations for this exciting event! Super HUGE Thank you to Jane Tyrrell who has been frantically manning the ticket sales!

Here are some further details:

"Rock Till It Rains" hopes to bring the community together, reduce isolation, give everyone something to focus on other than the ongoing drought, and to showcase the amazing musical talent we have in our district. This event is in lieu of our usual bi annual Ball. We need a rain dance instead!

The line-up includes something for everyone:

Lusi Austin (Cowra based blues and soul musician), Josie Laver (Country/ pop soloist Cowra), Weak Cordial (Grenfell's pop rock pub band), Wishful Thinking (Greenethorpe's 70's inspired rock band), Lisa Flanagan (Amazing star of the stage/ pop vocalist) and Axl and Jesse (two cool young dudes- up and coming Grenfell pop/ rock duo).

A couple of our local young people from this area will be performing as part of the warm up act.

We have chosen one student from Cowra High School, The Henry Lawson High School (Grenfell) and Young High School.

The whole community is involved - The Greenethorpe Public School P&C will provide the BBQ and the Hall will the run the bar. We are very grateful for the support from the Shamrock Hotel who are closing at 6.30pm that night in order to come and assist at the Gig. We are overwhelmed with the support people have shown for this event.

We have SOLD OUT and have 200 people and families coming which is the maximum limit that our Liquor licence stipulates. We are aware that there are many people who missed out on a ticket and we have had to create a wait list, should any spare tickets become available. Perhaps we will just have to do another one!
