GSM Hall News

The Annual General Meeting for the Hall was held on 13th August. There were 11 in attendance. Dave Watt, our President for the past 8 years was farewelled and Warwick Hodges was elected as our new President. As Dave said in his Report, he was "stepping aside, not away" and we know he will still be very involved in all aspects of Hall and community life. Many thanks to Dave from all of us for his commitment to Greenethorpe. Warwick was presented with "The Gavel" and is looking forward to the challenge of his new role. All other executive positions remain the same with the addition of Jenny-Lynne Watt as Assistant Secretary. Many thanks Jen. The next Hall meeting will be on Thursday, 8th October at 7.00 in the supper room. Please keep this date free. We are hoping to finalise the dates and plans for the Hall Centenary celebrations for Spring 2021. Also at the General meeting it was moved by Jude Bryant that a Tourism subcommittee be established (under the banner of the Hall) to support the Destination Plan and the proposed Rail Trail. On Thursday 3rd September at 10am (this week!!) there will be a working bee to install the 2 outdoor War Memorial Honour Boards. The Boards and bollards arrived last week and look spectacular. Good progress being made with the Garden. Enjoy the glorious Spring weather. Jill Allen Secretary Hall Committee.

Greenethorpe Guardians Ltd

A not-for-profit company has just purchased Peppertree Cottage in Northcote St, and has plans to establish a Greenethorpe Community Resources & Information Centre.

The Company will initially employ two part-time staff, and is also seeking volunteers. If you would like more information, or would like to express your views and ideas, please contact Doug Rose, Managing Director - email: greenethorpeguardians@hotmail.com

Greenethorpe Soldiers' Memorial Hall Centenary Cookbook

To coincide with the centenary of the Greenethorpe Soldiers' Memorial Hall, we will be producing a cookbook filled with recipes from past and present residents of Greenethorpe. The aim of the book is to deliver a keepsake to mark the centenary of the Hall, to have the famous recipes of our community recorded in one place, and to turn all members of the Greenethorpe community into very proud published authors. The book will be available for sale in August 2021, in conjunction with the Hall's centenary celebrations. We are at the stage where we need to begin gathering recipes from you. Please see below the layout of chapters for the book:

Light Meals and Starters

Breakfast and Brunch
Breads and Dips
Finger Food
Soups
Salads

The Main Meal

Fish and Seafood
Rice and Pasta
Poultry
Meat
Vegetables and Vegetarian dishes

Sweets
Slices
Biscuits
Muffins and Scones
Cakes
Desserts

Dressings, Sauces, Condiments and Preserves

If possible we would love to receive about four recipes from each person that cover the main chapters of the book. This will also help if we receive double ups of recipes such as Anzac biscuits, roast lamb, chocolate brownies, etc. Everyone who submits recipes will have at least one/two included in the book.

We would honestly love to have as many people from Greenethorpe to be included in this book! Please reach out to everyone in the community, and people who used to live in Greenethorpe, to ensure they have an opportunity to submit recipes. If you are famous for a particular recipe that Greenethorpe has enjoyed over the years, please be sure to include it.

Recipes can be submitted either by e-mail (jane.tyrrell@tyrrells.com.au) or you can drop off copies of your recipes to Belinda Mort at the Post Office. We would like to receive all recipes by the end of October to start collating the book.

Please ensure when writing your recipe to include your name, a full ingredient and method list, and number of people the recipe serves.

Thank you in advance for helping us put together something very special for Greenethorpe.

Early Educator's Day

Wednesday 2nd September 2020 is Early Childhood Educators' Day! We know it has been a challenging year, so this year's celebrations will be even more meaningful. It's a chance for service providers, families and children to say thank you on a very personal level.

We hope that Cowra Early Childhood Service early childhood educators know how much they are recognised & appreciated - not just on the day, but every day. To each and every one of you, we say... thank you!!

Around & About Greenethorpe is looking for an editor to take on the role from January 2021. Please get in touch on the number below if you're interested. Thankyou.
