

Victor Warren Smith

Victor was the son of John and Gwendoline Smith.

He joined the army in 1968, volunteering for Vietnam in October of that year. He was aged 21 years.

After serving for 12 months, he returned to Australia and finished his service at Holsworthy Barracks in Sydney.

Victor completed his schooling in Grenfell.

On his return from Vietnam, he married Jennifer Leggett and had two sons, Warren and Trevor.

He returned to Greenethorpe and worked for the Grain Elevator Board until his death on 26 August 1993, aged 46 years.
